ABOUT THIS COURSE

Mastering Leadership requires continuous attention to a number of complex issues. True leadership is strategic, that is to say that leadership addresses long-term issues. Effective leaders also find that all members of a team must be ready to play critical leadership roles and successful leaders know that the needs of the group guide the techniques and strategies that leaders use to guide and facilitate the activities of the group.

OBJECTIVES

- Improving team performance and the quality of our service/product.
- Characteristics of high performing teams: Key factors in team effectiveness
- Group dynamics: what happens in a group and why
- Strategies for improving teamwork: Leadership skills.
- Problem solving in groups: directing ourselves to get things done.
- Feedback: a key element in opening up communication.
